Dear Cole;

TM Advertising – American Airlines Center Complex

I am writing to thank you and your team for the exceptional level of service and quality installation you organization once again delivered on this our third Dallas project.

We have come to expect nothing but the best from Business Environments and you lived up to our expectations again. We would recommend your organization to anyone looking to partner with a truly professional organization.

We have now completed over 90,000 sq. ft. of furniture working with your team who are always flexible, friendly, neat and most importantly efficient. Please pass our thanks on to everyone who worked on this project.

Should you wish to use us as a new business reference do not hesitate to have your prospective customer call me directly. (212) 204 9791

We look forward to working with you again in the future.

Yours truly
